

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 129 - SB 311

February 9, 2015

SUMMARY OF BILL: The bill prohibits private entities that perform criminal background checks from reporting convictions that have been expunged for at least six months.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- The bill restricts certain information from being disclosed by private business entities that perform background checks.
- No impact on the regulatory activities of the Private Investigation and Polygraph Commission.
- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-29-121, all regulatory boards are required to be self-supporting over any two-year period. The Private Investigation and Polygraph Commission had an annual surplus of $83,321 in FY12-13, an annual surplus of $16,844 in FY13-14, and a cumulative reserve balance of $322,840 on June 30, 2014.
